In the space below, or on a separate sheet, state your reasons for amending the Ordinance.

Notice and Hearing Requirements

All applications for ordinance amendments must be reviewed by the Town of Pilot Mountain Planning & Zoning Board before proceeding to the Board of Commissioners for public hearing and decision. The Planning & Zoning Board will review applications for ordinance amendments at its next meeting following submission of the application and filing fee if the application is submitted at least thirty days in advance of the regular meeting date. Following review and recommendation by the Planning & Zoning Board, the matter will be forwarded to the Board of Commissioners. Following the receipt of notification of a pending ordinance amendment, the Board of Commissioners will schedule a public hearing for the next available meeting that allows for sufficient time for the City to publish the statutorily required notices. All applications for ordinance amendments must be published in the newspaper once a week for two consecutive weeks.
