Permit Extension Request

Section 105.5 of the 2022 California Building Code states:

“Every permit issued shall become invalid unless work on the site authorized by such permit is commenced within 180 days after issuance, or if the work authorized on site by such permit is suspended or abandoned for a period of 180 days after the time of work is commenced. The Building Official is authorized to grant, in writing, one or more extensions of time, for periods not more than 180 days each. The extension shall be requested in writing and justifiable cause demonstrated.”
