Dear Property Owner or Representative:

Due to the increase in trespassing violations, we are obtaining information from property owners authorizing our officers to enforce criminal trespass in the second degree.

This information is designed to give our department permission to enter your property and cite violators trespassing on private property, whether the property owner is present or not. The property owner will be required to appear in court against any violators found trespassing on their property.

If you wish our officers to enforce the trespass laws on your property, please fill in the requested information completely. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Glenn DeWitt
CHIEF OF POLICE
