ZONING PERMIT DISCLAIMER

The issuance of a Zoning Permit by the Village of Danville certifies only that the proposed use, structure, or improvement appears to comply with the applicable zoning regulations of the Village at the time of review.

This Zoning Permit is not a Building Permit and does not authorize construction activities that may require permits or approvals from other agencies or jurisdictions.

The Village of Danville does not verify, establish, certify, or guarantee property boundary lines, lot dimensions, easements, rights-of-way, setbacks as measured in the field, existing or proposed grades, drainage patterns, drainage impacts, or site elevations. The property owner and/or applicant is solely responsible for determining and accurately identifying all property lines, survey information, grading, drainage, and site conditions.

By accepting this permit, the applicant acknowledges that the Village of Danville assumes no responsibility or liability for errors, omissions, disputes, damages, or costs arising from incorrect property line locations, grading, drainage, construction placement, or other site-related conditions. Any necessary surveys, engineering, or professional services required to verify property boundaries, elevations, grading, or drainage shall be obtained by the property owner at their own expense.
