

The Cheney Police Department maintains a “prowl check list” for the citizens of Cheney. This list is intended to allow police officers to give special attention to businesses and residences that are experiencing specific nuisance problems or are vacant due to vacation or other circumstances. In order to be included on the list, an end date must be provided. If the circumstance changes and you no longer wish to be on the list, you must contact the Cheney Police Department Dispatch Center at 509-535-9233.
