Affirmation

According to Ohio Revised Code section 2921.15, knowingly filing a false allegation of police misconduct in the performance of an officer's duties is a criminal offense, punishable by up to 6 months in jail, a $1,000.00 fine, or both. Understand that it is the policy of this department to pursue charges against anyone who makes a false allegation of misconduct. Understanding this, I affirm that this statement is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
