JURORS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY – YOUR PRESENCE IS APPRECIATED.

Right to Reemployment: A private employer may not terminate the employment of a permanent employee because the employee serves as a juror. An employee whose employment is terminated in violation of this section is entitled to return to the same employment that the employee held when summoned for jury service if the employee, as soon as practical after release from jury service, gives the employer actual notice that the employee intends to return. (Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Section 122.001).

Failure to Answer Summons and Penalties: A person who fails to comply with this summons is subject to a contempt action punishable by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $1000.00 (Government Code, Section 62.0141). Additionally, a person shall be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $100.00 if the person: 1-fails to attend court in obedience to the notice without reasonable excuse; or 2- files a false claim of exemption from jury service. (Government Code, Section 62.111).

Proper Clothing Required: All persons entering the courtroom should be dressed in clothing reasonably befitting the dignity and solemnity of the court proceedings.

TO ALL POTENTIAL JURORS:

Exempt or Disqualified: You do not need to appear in person if you are exempt or are not qualified for jury service. To claim or report your disqualification you must complete the following form below, sign it and mail or personally bring it immediately to the address printed on the front of this summons.

Excuse: If you do not meet the exemption of disqualification you must return reason for excuse
