ILLINOIS

Plumbing Affidavit

225 ILCS 320/3: Illinois State Plumbing Code allows the owner occupant of a single-family residence, or the owner of a single-family residence under construction for his or her occupancy, to conduct planning, installing, altering or repairing the plumbing system of such residence provided the following:

- Such plumbing shall comply with the minimum standards for plumbing contained in the Illinois State Plumbing Code and the Plumbing Code of Glen Ellyn; and Plumbing work is subject to inspection by the Illinois Department of Public Health or The Village of Glen Ellyn and/or their agent(s); and
- No friend, relative, employee, contractor, etc. may assist, layout or install the plumbing work unless that person is certified by the Illinois Department of Public Health Plumbing Contractor Registration and licensed as a plumber by the State of Illinois.
- The owner is someone who has taken possession of and is living in the premises as his or her bona fide sole and exclusive residence, or, in the case of an owner of a single family residence under construction for his or her occupancy, he or she expects to take possession of and live in the premises as his or her bona fide sole and exclusive residence and occupy such for not less than 6 months after completion of the plumbing work performed or in the case of construction, occupy after completion of construction for not less than 6 months.

Please be advised that if any of the above items are not strictly adhered to or are misrepresented to the Village of Glen Ellyn, the associated permit may be suspended or revoked without further notice. Additionally, any plumbing installed not in accordance with the above guidelines may be required to be removed at the discretion of the Village of Glen Ellyn Building Official.

I have read and understand the above information as it applies to the Illinois Plumbing Code and Plumbing License Law as it pertains to my permit and my representation that I will be completing the plumbing work as specified in the listed permit.
