Home Occupation Permits

As defined by Chapter 17.52.120 of the Seaside Municipal Code

- A. Home Occupations are intended to provide reasonable opportunities for employment within the home, while avoiding changes to the residential character of a dwelling that accommodates a home occupation, or the surrounding neighborhood.
- B. Home occupations shall be permitted only after a Home Occupation Permit and a Business License is secured by the City.
- C. The following are uses that may be approved as home occupations (not exclusive to other uses in compliance with the requirements of this permit):
 - 1. Arts and crafts work (ceramics, painting, photography, sculpture, etc.);
 - 2. Tailors, sewing, etc.;
 - 3. Office-use only, including an office for an architect, attorney, consultant, counselor, insurance agent, planner, tutor, writer, etc., and electronic commerce.
- D. The following are examples of uses prohibited as home occupations:
 - 1. Adult entertainment activities or businesses;
 - 2. Animal hospitals and boarding facilities;
 - 3. Automotive and other vehicle repair and service (body or mechanical), painting, storage or upholstery, or the repair, reconditioning, servicing, or manufacture of any internal combustion or diesel engines, or of any motor vehicle, including autos, boats, motorcycles or trucks;
 - 4. Contractor's and other storage yards;
 - 5. Dismantling, junk or scrap yards;
 - 6. Fitness/health facilities (except that one-on-one personal trainers may be allowed);
 - 7. Medical Clinics, laboratories, or doctor's offices;
 - 8. Personal services;
 - 9. On-site sales, except that mail order businesses may be allowed where there is no stock-in-trade on the site;
 - 10. Uses which require explosives or highly combustible or toxic materials;
 - 11. Welding and machine shop operations; or
 - 12. Wood cutting businesses.

- E. Accessory Use: Home occupations shall be defined as an activity that is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling for residential purposes.
- F. Location of home occupation activities. A home occupation shall not involve the use of more than one room that cannot occupy more than twenty-five (25) percent of the gross floor area of the ground floor of a dwelling unit. A home occupation may utilize garages or other enclosed accessory structures only if required off-street parking spaces are continually maintained. Horticultural activities for home occupation purposes may be conducted outdoors, but only on the rear one-third of the site.
- G. Visibility. The home occupation shall not require any exterior changes to the residence not normally found in the dwelling. The home occupation activity cannot be visible from the public right-of-way or from neighboring residences.
- H. Signs. No on-site advertising is allowed with the exception of a one-foot square nameplate attached flush to the wall of the residence.
- I. Safety. Activities conducted and equipment or material used cannot change the fire safety or occupancy classifications of the residence. The use cannot employ the storage of explosive, flammable or hazardous materials beyond those normally associated with residential use.
- J. Off-site Effects. No home occupation activity shall create dust, electrical interference, fumes, gas, glare, light, noise, odor, smoke, toxic/hazardous materials, vibration or other hazards or nuisances as determined by the Seaside Planning Services Manager.
- K. Outdoor display or storage. There shall be no window display or outdoor storage or display of equipment, materials, or supplies associated with the home occupation.
- L. Employees. A home occupation shall have no on-site employees other than full-time residents of the dwelling.
- M. Clients/Customer visits. The home occupation shall be operated so as to not require more than eight vehicle trips per day of clients, customers, visitors and/or service visits to the residence. On-site presence of clients or customers shall be limited to one client or family at a time and only between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m.
- N. Motor Vehicles. There shall be no motor vehicles used or kept on the premises, except residents' passenger vehicles and/or one pickup truck, van or similar vehicle not exceeding 1.5 ton carrying capacity. The home occupation shall not involve the use of commercial vehicles for delivery of materials to or from the premises in a manner different from normal residential usage, except FedEx, UPS, or USPS-type home deliveries and pickups.
- O. Utility service modifications. No utility service to the dwelling shall be modified solely to accommodate a home occupation, other than as required for normal residential use.
