DISTILLED SPIRITS, BEER AND WINE MONTHLY EXCISE TAX RETURN

Under the applicable Ordinance of the City of Zebulon, Georgia (Z07242018) all retail consumption dealers in alcoholic beer and wine as well as distilled spirits are required to file with the City Clerk a monthly report by the 10th day of each calendar month, showing the total number of drinks that contained alcoholic beer, wine, and distilled spirits sold by the retailer during the preceding calendar month, and the total sum charged to the public for such drinks. The City of Zebulon imposes and levies an excise tax on each retail consumption dealer of alcoholic beer wine and/or distilled spirits. The tax shall be based upon the retail price of all spirits sold during the previous calendar month by retailers in the City of Zebulon.

This return is subject to audit.
