Please read all the instructions carefully. Failure to do so may result in your application being deemed incomplete, which could delay your Public Hearing.

All application materials to be discussed at the Planning Board hearing must be formally submitted no later than 15 days prior to the hearing.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Complete and sign the attached application. All sections must be completed in full. If applicable, the mortgage company or bank must sign the section entitled “Consent by Mortgagees”.
2. Deliver the completed application to the Planning Board office with the appropriate fee.
3. When the form is complete, the Board members will sign it and the original will be brought to the Merrimack County Registry of Deeds in Concord, New Hampshire. The Registry will record the merger and then return the paperwork to the Planning Board office. Copies will be made for the Planning Board office’s files and a copy will be distributed to the Selectmen’s office. The recorded document will then be sent back to the landowner.
4. There is $100.00 fee for a Voluntary Lot Merger. This includes the cost of recording at the Merrimack County Registry of Deeds.

Return recorded copy to:
