An investigation of the applicant's record and background such as shall be reasonably necessary to protect the public may be conducted. An applicant for permit may be reasonably denied if the applicant is currently wanted on warrant of arrest, or if the applicant has been convicted of a felony involving theft, fraud, bribery or perjury.

APPLICANT CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that I have read and examined this application and know the above responses to be true and correct. All provisions of the laws and ordinances governing the business of being a peddler or solicitor will be met whether specified or not. I understand the granting of a permit does not presume to give authority to violate or cancel provisions of any other local or state law regulating such activities. I agree that I and/or my assistants will not enter upon private property where a sign or any other means of notification is posted to indicate no solicitation allowed, no solicitors, do not disturb, no trespassing, or words of similar import. We also agree to leave private property promptly when requested to so by the owner, tenant, occupant, or person in the control of the property.
