

City of Everett Service Dog License Declaration

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) defines a service animal as “a dog that has been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability. The task(s) performed by the dog must be directly related to the person’s disability.”

Emotional support, therapy, comfort, or companion animals are not considered service animals, even if they have been prescribed by a medical professional. License fees are not waived for emotional support animals.

To apply for a service dog license, please answer the following questions:

1. Is this dog a service animal required because of a disability? Yes No (circle one)
2. What work or task has this dog been trained to perform?

I am applying for a City of Everett pet license for my service dog. I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing answers are truthful and accurate.
